Business Description

Ceramic and tile are the most widely used elements in the construction industry. They can be used as floor, wall, ceiling, and facade coverings in bathrooms, courtyards, buildings, and other interior and exterior parts due to their great variety and high strength. Today, with the increase in world population and the expansion of the construction industry, the need for the production of construction materials has increased dramatically.

Therefore, many countries in the world have launched production lines of ceramic and tile, and among them, China, with the highest production rate, is in the first rank of these products. After that, countries such as India, Spain, and Brazil are next in line. Meanwhile, Aryaz Trading Company has become one of the leading producers in this field worldwide by producing various types of top-quality ceramic and tiles to meet the needs of traders and customers in the Middle East.
